SENATE TO PROBE CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Barah's Resolution Gives Sweeping Powers to Investigating Committee.

TO WORK AT CONVENTIONS

'Contesting Delegations' Will Be the Object of Special Inquiry.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Senate adopted today the resolution by Senator Borah (Idaho) directing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to investigate the pre-convention campaign expenses of Presidential candidates of both parties. The committee will meet tomorrow to arrange for starting the inquiry, and is expected to appoint a subcommittee comprising Senators Watson (Ind.), Sherman (Ill.) and Kenyon (Iowa), Republicans, and Pomerene (Ohio) and Reed (Mo.), Democrats.

The subcommittee will be expected to set about its work at once and to carry on its work at Chicago and San Francisco during the convention. This part of the investigation will deal especially with the financing of contesting delegations from various States. It has been charged that many of the contests are artificial affairs, arranged for political effect, and that contesting delegations in many cases have their expenses to the conventions paid by candidates in whose interest they are making their fight for seats.

It is proposed to have the delegates and contestants themselves come before the committee and tell the precise facts about their arrangement with candidates. The resolution is broad enough to enable the committee to investigate the political arrangements that have been made and the like. Aside from this resolution the subcommittee will also have referred to it the bill by Senator Borah (Idaho) amending the corrupt practices act by limiting to $10,000 the amount any candidate for nomination for President may spend in a given State.

Senator Calder (N. Y.), head of the Audit and Control Committee, called up the resolution, and Senator Borah asked for unanimous consent for its consideration. Senator King (Utah) said he opposed the principle of it, because it meant Federal interference in State affairs. "Before long," he said, "we shall have a deputy marshal supervising all the primary elections in the States."

But an objection to consideration was pressed and the resolution passed without a division. Senator Borah has been fighting for this outcome for several weeks. He has attacked repeatedly the big campaign fund which he charged the managers for Gen. Wood had raised and with which they are seeking, he said, to nominate the Presidential nomination. Likewise he has been equally vigorous in assailing the Democrats, charging that in behalf of both Palmer and McAdoo huge funds have been raised and improper methods adopted.

FIVE FOR JOHNSON.ALABAMA REPORT

Senator Also Gains Delegate From Alaska.

Five of the fourteen delegates to the Republican National Convention chosen in Alabama Wednesday are for Senator Hiram W. Johnson, according to word received from there yesterday by Angus McSwen, Eastern manager of the Johnson campaign.

According to a newspaper despatch from Birmingham six of the uninstructed delegation are assumed to favor Harding, three Lowden, two Wood and three undecided.

T. W. Reed, one of the two delegates from Alaska who have been carried by the Wood managers as among the very best assets they have, has written a personal letter to Senator Johnson to say he will do what he can to insure the latter's nomination. In addition to the 10 delegates already under instructions for Senator Johnson his managers say he has at least seventy others under pledge to vote for him in Chicago.

SCRATCH PERSHING IN DARK HORSE LIST

General's Headquarters Cancelled in Chicago.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, May 20.—Gen. John J. Pershing has disappeared from the list of Republican "dark horse" possibilities.

It was learned today the option on a suite of rooms at the Congress Hotel, to be used as his political headquarters, had been cancelled by the Woods brothers of Nebraska, who managed his campaign.

Gen. Pershing's supporters built their hopes at the beginning of the Republican race on the possibility of a deadlocked convention, at which time his name would be given prominence as the logical man to lead the 1920 race. His showing in Nebraska, where he ran far below Senator Johnson and Major Gen. Wood, took a great deal of the enthusiasm out of the movement and he has been considered as only a very remote possibility since then. The Congress Hotel cancellation indicates strongly that he has given up the race.

Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker, a sponsor for Gen. Pershing's Presidential candidacy, came out for Gov. Lowden today when he addressed the Young Men's Lowden Club luncheon. The Republican National Convention will cost the Chicago Committee on Arrangements $150,000, at least 50 per cent. more than the expense of entertaining the 1916 convention. Fred W. Upham, chairman of the Chicago committee, who also is treasurer of the National Committee, said that the ultimate figure will be nearer $150,000.

GEN. PERSHING BACK FROM PANAMA CANAL

Praises Captain Who Got Stranded Ship Off Safely.

Gen. John J. Pershing landed yesterday afternoon at Hoboken from the army transport Northern Pacific, in from the Panama Canal Zone by way of Porto Rico, where she lay four days stranded on a sand bar, and was greeted by a throng of civilians and military folk. He has been on a tour of inspection since late in April, and urges every American to visit the Panama Canal, "the most wonderful thing" he ever has seen.

The General praised the seamanship of Capt. Lusting of the Northern Pacific in getting her off without damage. The skipper said the accident was due to a bad tide and bad wind, practically taking command of the ship at "one of the worst harbor entrances anywhere."

Gen. Pershing declined to talk of any aspect of the political situation. He looks a bit stouter and browner than he did on his return from France. He went directly to Washington.

Gov. Arthur Yager of Porto Rico, who is going to his home in Baltimore and because of ill health may undergo an operation, said Porto Rico was one of the happiest little countries on the face of the globe. Exports had doubled in the last year, the island never had been so prosperous and the people were happy and contented.
